

January 14, 2019 General Meeting

Present: Jani Andrews, Holly Oten, Hilary Frazier, Jennifer, Eunhee HA, Adrianna Miller, Peggy Douglas, Deanna Flores, Sarahi Bravo, Haley Greene, and Matt Ellis.

Guest Speaker: Sarahi Bravo with Sharehouse. Sharehouse is a 501C3 (non-profit organization). It is open Mon-Fri from 3-7 and Wed. from 2-6. Currently 60-80 kids come that are mainly middle schoolers. In March they will be doing a job skills training for the kids. The iconnect team are adult volunteers that engage with the kids by doing activities that connect them. The tutoring program is still under development. Bridge and cultures ESL classes will be held before Sharehouse opens in the afternoons. Sharehouse is planning on being open during the summer, but hasn't figured out the hours yet.

Membership update: Currently we have 47 members.

Polar Express update: 99 people came to the 2PM showing, and 128 came to the 6PM showing.

Read-a-thon: Holly made thermometers and got businesses to sponsor the read-a-thon. Also, an email was sent out to teachers to gain their support.

Get-to-know the Superintendent : A way for the superintendent (Matt Ellis) to connect with the community and discuss legislative happenings and how parents can have a voice. Keep it simple with just soup. Hold it on a Friday in February during lunch with childcare available at the developmental preschool.

Title I Conference: Friday, February 22 from 8:30AM - 3:00PM at the Red Lion Hotel (2525 N. 20th Avenue, Pasco, WA
